THE ANNUAL REPORT

FACULTY OF LITERATURE
OTSUMA WOMEN’S UNIVERSITY

Vol. IV
March 1972

CONTENTS

Japanese Literature
A Biographical Study on Hadano Imiki Asatomo
Tomiyoshi Kawakami (1)

Kyokujin Jorobi, A Work Written by Santo Kyoden, Discovered for the First Time Recently
Giichiro Hamada (25)

Tekkan Yosano in the 31st Year of Meiji
Eitaro Hirota (39)

A Study of Aru Otoko, Sono Ane no Shi by Naoya Shiga
Teruo Ikeuchi (66)

General Education
L'imparfait du Subjonctif et la Concordance des Temps
Takae Matsuda (157)

A Revolution of the Concepts of Libraries in College and University
Tokuzo Suzuki (137)

On Religion in the Early Age of Enlightenment
Toshikazu Kamai (125)

English Literature
Some Considerations on International Business Telecommunication
—With Special Emphasis on Telex Communication—
Itaru Nagano (111)

A Study of C. McCuller’s Reflections in A Golden Eye
—Centering on the Analysis of the Symptoms of Captain Penderton—
Haruma Okada (101)

A Study of Herman Melville: Moby-Dick
Takao Minamizuka (71)

Hawthorne’s Puritanism and The Scarlet Letter
Kakujiro Nagoya (53)

Shelley’s Alastor
—An Interpretation and the Method of Casamian—
Kyoko Ishikawa (35)

Poems and Poetics of William Carlos Williams
Kikuo Kato (17)

On Downgrading Transformation
Takeshi Kohno (1)